

BRENNAN VICTOR OVER B. MARTIN

Pinkie Lewis Disqualified
in Go With Kid
Norfolk

NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—Bill Brennan, the Chicago heavyweight, defeated Bob Martin of West Virginia, 146 lbs., in a 15-round bout at Madison Square garden tonight. The bout went the limit, and the judges agreed on Brennan as the winner.

Probably the shortest bout ever held in Madison Square garden was the opening heavyweight contest, which lasted 16 seconds.

Mark Lewis of New York sent a right across to the jaw of Bob Wallace of Boston, sending him down for the count almost as soon as they had squared off.

Homer Smith of Kalamazoo, Mich., knocked out Wild Bill Reed of California in the fourth round with a hard right to the ear. Smith weighed 185 pounds and Reed 180.

The third contest ended in the second round with the disqualification of Eddie Lewis, a California negro heavyweight, for holding his opponent, Kid Norfolk, who holds the Hickory belt as the negro lightweight champion.

Brennan and Martin entered the ring shortly before 9:30 p.m. Brennan's weight was announced as 182½ pounds and Martin's 184½.

From the first round, when he was hit with a right, he suffered profusely from the mouth. He was the aggressor, however, during the next four rounds and had Brennan on the defensive most of the time. In the fifth round Martin landed four right smashes to the head and eye, and knocked out Brennan on the ropes.

From that stage to the end of the eleventh, Brennan was the master, sending stiff left jabs to the mouth, every one of which had a weakening effect on the receiver.

In the tenth round Martin, although showing signs of weariness, made a straight right smash to Brennan's head which staggered the Chicagoan a couple of seconds before the bell sounded.

Had Martin landed this blow any time during the first five rounds, when he had all his strength behind his blows, it might have counted for his opponent in his favor.

Brennan had all the better of the 11th round, but in the 12th, Martin rallied and at close quarters gave blow for blow and divided the honor of that session, Brennan being visibly tired as he went to his corner.

Brennan had the better of the remaining three rounds, the last of which found him continually trying to land a knockout blow, but the German soldier stood him toe to toe, the greater part of the way and the hair were fighting in a fierce mixup when the bell ended the bout. They were both badly marked about the face.

STOP THIEF! CRY SUCCEEDS

Old-Time Hue and Cry Results in Big Chase in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Feb. 18.—An old-time hue and cry, raised in West Madison street near the wholesale district today resulted in the capture of one of three robbers who attempted to hold up a jewelry store.

A watch repairer on a balcony saw the men point revolvers at his employer and thrust his head out the window.

"Stop thief! Police!" he yelled.

The men fled and the cry was echoed by passersby. Two of the bandits jumped into an automobile and escaped toward Schubert of Belmont, Ind., took to his heels with more than a thousand pursuers in full cry.

Two blocks south in Market street the chase drove Schulz, and then he ran back into the arms of a traffic policeman.

Solons Kill Arkansas Bandit Law. LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Feb. 18.—A vote of 44 to 41, the senate measure which would have made robbery a capital offense punishable by death or life imprisonment. The house also set March 4 as the date for consideration of the bill passed by the senate yesterday over the governor's veto, which would permit the sale of cigarettes under license and repeal the present law prohibiting their sale in the state.

TULSA DEFEATS CENTRAL QUINT

Game Marred by Slugging of Referee by Central Man

The University of Tulsa basketball team last night won the first of a two-game series with the Central quintet, five at the Harvey gymnasium, 51 to 22. It was a fast and rough game. Twenty-six personal fouls were called, 14 on Central and 12 on Tulsa. Three players, Braymer, Hafer and Lefford of Central and Williams of Tulsa, were eliminated from play by personal fouls.

The game was marred by the slugging of Referee Miller, a Central player, and his replacement, Mallett, a veteran basketball official in this section and formerly a referee in the western conference, immediately interdicted the offending player off the court.

Williams, Stepp, Keck and Kerr of Tulsa and Miller, Lefford and Hafer of Central, the latter in particular, were stars of the game.
